

Gentlemen, I am dismayed at the attempt by the National Association of Broadcasters to violate the rights of XM radio and it's listeners. I benefit from the traffic and weather programing. In additon, I pay for it and therefore entitled to receive it. I suggest those against the excellent service that XM Satellite do something to improve their services. This is America and competition is a healthy thing for capitalism. Kind regards,
Steven